Hi Ty,

Thanks but this is not quite right and I am not sure we even want to dignify him with a response. Let's check in on this on Monday.

Thanks,

Francesca

Sorry for the delay. Here is a draft response. Please note that the SF Bay Guardian has been working on a biosolids compost article the past few days and just sent some questions to the Mayor's Office. I'm drafting a response for them as well. I have no indication or notion that this article will include any mention of you at all. So far, based on our web monitoring the blog posting of Mr. Stauber was pretty isolated.

I would recommend not personally posting this response under your name. We certainly want to make sure it covers everything you would like said, but I'm hesitant to dignify his post and create a mechanism for further online back and forth dialogue that includes you. The response instead would be posted under the name of Ed, Tommy or I.

Laura and I definitely want to talk to you about our next steps. Ed, Laura and I have outlined a draft strategy moving forward. Let us know when you are available and if you have changes.

Thanks,

Ty

Also, would you like to get on a call this morning to discuss all the items we are working on to continue to respond to this group.

Let me know and thanks.
